

5TH ANNUAL WILLIAMSBURG CHILI COOKOFF CONTEST

ENTRY FORM

RULES

Home Style Chili is a combination of ingredients with any kind of meat or combination of meats and beans seasoned with chili peppers and spices.

Traditional Red Chili is a combination of any kind of meats cooked with chili peppers, various spices and other ingredients (NO BEANS).

Contestants are responsible for supplying all of their own cooking supplies (crock pot, ladle and extension cord). The sponsors of the cook off will provide an area for each contestant.

Each contestant must bring 5 quarts of chili, to be used for judging (by the official judges and for the people's choice); contestant may bring more chili to insure they do not run out.

Each contestant will be assigned a contestant's number. The contestants will be provided with cups for the judges, their contestant number must be on each cup given to the judges.

Small individual cups will be provided for the people's judging, each contestant must display their contestant number for everyone to see for the People's Choice Award.
